

OCTOBER 2ND
DINNER

The Wines - The Cheeses - Ah - The Tastes of Italy

We're not ALL politics and civic awareness. No, we at CITY CLUB do occasionally kick up our proverbial heels and indulge ourselves in something entirely sybaritic. And what better way to do this than to have a tasting of Italian wines and cheeses presented by the experts of Queen Anne Thriftway!

Those of you who shop at Queen Anne's are familiar with their mouth-watering display of international cheeses. They're right there in front of you, in tantalizingly small parcels, just begging to be purchased. But what if you don't like it? What does it really taste like? What does it go with? How does it compare to a Camembert?

On October 2nd CITY CLUB's dinner program will help you answer some of these questions. Kelly Heinzinger, Store Director, along with Virginia Ritchey, the Deli Manager, and Kate Kirkwood, the Wine Manager, will present an evening of Italian wines and cheeses.

The evening's format will be different in order to give you every opportunity to enjoy the selections presented by the Queen Anne team. You'll arrive at 6 pm where you will find a salad pre-placed at your seat for your enjoyment. While you listen to chamber music provided by The Bridge Club, you'll relax in the conviviality of your table-mates. At 6:30 the program will begin.

Under the expert guidance of Virginia and Kate, we'll learn about some extraordinary Mediterranean wines and cheeses, chosen just for CITY CLUB members and guests to enjoy. Additionally, Kelly, who has been with Queen Anne's since 1988, will share some of her experiences at this unique store.

At 7:15 pm we'll partake of an Italian-inspired buffet prepared by the UPS catering staff.

Plan on attending this very special evening and raising a glass to that ancient Greek city in southern Italy - Sybaris!

OCTOBER 16TH
LUNCHEON

Give It Up or Take It Back? - Initiative No. 1 Debate

It was Dr. Suess who taught us a fundamental lesson in his classic book Horton Hears a Who: "People are people, no matter how small; people are people no matter how tall." Tacoma's City Council members seem to be adherents of Dr. Suess's philosophy, as witnessed by their April 23rd passage of an anti-discrimination ordinance for sexual minorities. Not everyone in our community agrees. Initiative No. 1 has been added to this November's ballot. Its passage will mean reversing City Council's action.

At CITY CLUB's October luncheon program scheduled for noon on the 16th at the Sheraton Ballroom, we'll have an opportunity to hear both sides of this emotional issue. Judge Kitty-Ann van Doornick will moderate a 30 minute structured debate.

Representing the team against repealing the ordinance will be members of Tacoma United for Fairness (TUFF). Laurie Jinkins, Attorney with the Washington State Department of Health and TUFF Campaign Co-Chair, will present her side's opening statement. She will be supported on the panel by Lyle Quasim, Chief of Staff for the Pierce County Executive and leader of The Black Collective and John Lantz, president of Lucks Food Decorating Company.

On the opposing side of the debate, those in favor of repealing the ordinance, will be members of Help Us Take Back Tacoma - Again! (HUTBTA). Doug Delin, co-founder of HUTBTA, founder of McKinley Hill Boosters, and past candidate for City Council, will be heading up his team. Assisting Doug in presenting the opposition's logic will be Hap Butler, co-founder of HUTBTA, and Curt Anderson, President of Air Control Systems, Inc.

Following the 30 minute debate, audience members will be allowed to pose questions through the use of cards that will be shuttled to the moderator. This will allow for anonymity of the questioner and better control of time.

The discussion and subsequent outcome of the election will reflect Tacoma's fundamental human values. Make plans to attend this luncheon.

And all the Whos down in Whoville yelled with all of their might
